

NOTICES

Mission Action Plan

At the 10 am service this morning (Sunday, 10 February) we will be considering the draft Mission Action Plan (MAP).

The PCC invites comments and suggestions from the wider Church community to help identify what should be our priorities over the next 5 years.

Please have a read of the draft MAP (February 2019 version), which can be found on the Church's website in the left-hand column on the home-page (storringtonparishchurch.org.uk).

Some paper copies are available at the back of the Church for those without internet access. (If these run out and you would like a paper copy please put your name on the list and further copies will be provided).

Comments and suggestions are invited in writing and should either be put in the "MAP box" at the back of the Church or emailed to Simon Emerson at simon.ann@hotmail.com. If you are suggesting a new "task" please also consider what might be the first steps to take it forward. All written comments will be taken to the PCC for consideration in finalising the MAP. Thank you.

CHEMIN NEUF COMMUNITY The Priory, School Lane, Storrington

The Chemin Neuf Community will be hosting a Lent course entitled "Lord Jesus, Teach Me to Pray" at The Priory starting on 25 February 2019 for 7 weeks.

Anyone, from any Church, who wants to deepen their life of faith and prayer will be very welcome. Charles and Felicity Hadley with Iwona Peda, Head of House, will be leaders. We are planning to meet on Mondays at 7pm for about one and a half hours. More details from Charles and Felicity or Iwona.

Please let any of us know if you would like to help with the course. There will be a couple of introductory sessions later in January.

Bishop Richard's letter for February

Over the next few months the Bishops will be visiting all the deaneries in the diocese. This is a less formal visit than those that followed +Martin's appointment. However, they will afford an opportunity to listen to where we are at this stage in our diocesan life and consult together about the next phase in the diocesan strategy.

There are those in the church who are allergic to any mention of strategy. They often (quite rightly) feel that because the Church is a unique body, very different from other organisations, it should organise its life in a very different way. The language of strategy and vision is seen as being drawn from management theory and therefore not applicable.

There is some truth in this, but all strategy is trying to do is ask where we are; where we need to be and map out a route to get from one to the other. Someone once said, "to fail to plan is to plan to fail." We need to do our strategic thinking somewhat differently to other organisations, but it would be irresponsible not to do it at all.

In our case our strategy must flow from a clear understanding of who and whose we are. This is theology proper, revealed to us in scripture, interpreted through our tradition. Our culture poses a different set of questions to us than those of former generations. We need to work out how we faithfully proclaim the faith afresh to each generation. I hope that as many of us as possible will join the conversation.

+Richard

(for more details of how to do that go to the diocesan website)
