

3 Heralds Magazine

Report for APCM – April 2016

Current subscribed circulation is around 900 copies, with ad hoc sales and free copies distributed to various outlets in Storrington.

Magazine has been full colour since January 2016, financed through a slight increase in advertising costs, whilst maintaining cost of magazine at 90p per issue.

Amanda Hislop remains as editor, with support from Viv Stuart. Evelyn Hendry supplies many photographs.

Evonprint continues as magazine layout and printer, and there service is excellent.

Full complement of distributors at the moment.

Magazine Committee meets every 4 months, and John Tunnell remains as Chairman.

The number of submissions for the magazine has increased, and the Committee are to consider increasing to 36 pages, from current 32, from January 2017, but will be dependent on finances. The increase in pages would allow a whole page to be dedicated to children and youth events, reports and activities covering all three Parishes.

To note, the finances of the magazine are completely independent of any other Church or Parish accounts.
