COME TO REMEMBER

your loved ones, friends and family who have died. Light a candle.

Sunday, 1 November at 3pm at Trinity Methodist Church - outside event in front of the church by the memorial garden.

Everyone is welcome.

It's back!

The event you have all been waiting for! It's time to get the vicar slimmer!!

You may remember that a few years ago now Revd Jacquie Peal and I did a sponsored slim for the Tower fund. We each lost a stone. Jacquie has since gone on to lose another stone and more. Unfortunately I have put 10lb back on (no surprise there).

So it is time to begin again, and Jacquie will be joining me once more. We both want to get at least a stone off (preferably more, in my case). The slim begins now and will end in 6 months' time – Easter Day, 4 April 2021.

The money raised will be split 50/50 between Church funds and The Children's Society. As you will be aware from the news, all charities have been hit hard by Covid-19 and restrictions on fundraising. This is our way of doing something to help others as we get ourselves a bit fitter and healthier.

Please support us as much as you can. Email me with your name, amount per pound or total, and whether you are able to Gift Aid your donation at kathryn.windslow@btinternet.com.

There will also be a hard copy available in Church and at the Rectory Office. People can sponsor us individually or together. Many, many thanks.

CHILDREN'S SOCIETY BOXES

Due to the current Covid-19 situation the Church of England Children's Society collecting boxes will not be collected and emptied during this year. All box-holders will be informed when the boxes are able to be emptied again.

THE COLLECT

Almighty God, you called Luke the physician, whose praise is in the gospel, to be an evangelist and physician of the soul: by the grace of the Spirit and through the wholesome medicine of the gospel, give your Church the same love and power to heal; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING (Epistle)

2 Timothy 4: 5-17

A reading from the letter of Paul to Timothy

As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Do your best to come to me soon, for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry. I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments. Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will pay him back for his deeds. You also must beware of him, for he strongly opposed our message.

At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

GOSPEL

St Luke 10: 1-9

Alleluia, alleluia. The word of the Lord endures for ever. The word of the Lord is the good news announced to you. Alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go.

He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.

Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road.

Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!' And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the laborer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.

Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION COLLECT

Lord God, the source of truth and love, keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, united in prayer and the breaking of bread, and one in joy and simplicity of heart, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN (for Zoom Service)

Sent by the Lord am I;

My hands are ready now
To make the earth a place
In which the kingdom comes.
(Repeat)

The angels cannot change
A world of hurt and pain
Into a world of love,
Of justice and of peace.

The task is mine to do,
To set it really free.
O help me to obey;
Help me to do your will.

Help with access to Universal Credit

One of the consequences of Covid has been its massive impact on the economy. More and more people are having to seek help, often for the first time in their lives. Understanding the workings of Universal Credit, however, can be a bit of a battle. Fortunately, the Together in Sussex website has put together some very helpful information:
